$35 each for two or more.

Making good software choices is not an easy task. If this crucial decision is your responsibility, then this program is a must attend for you. This class will show you how to get the greatest return from your IT investment by choosing the most effective and beneficial software for your company.

Do you need a server?

This and more will be addressed including other business challenges such as data entry, software customization, licensing, database concerns, and how to avoid getting scammed by a software salesperson.

Additional Topics

The pluses and minuses of different types of software.

Using the software that you have.

Getting the software you need . . . for free?

Where to store critical company documents.

What to do when your software doesn't work.

How to avoid needless data entry.

Software customization—can I afford it?
